SICILY 2019

Stella Splendes II

A week of music making and concerts for those who wish to dive into the fascinating atmosphere of old times.

The music we will sing together will be a varied selection of pieces: Sephardic songs, Medieval Spanish, Italian, French and/or English songs. We will also integrate some traditional tunes that have come down to us from oral traditions that could well be just as old! Music can be made to sound new and joyful. The idea is to create a group willing to experiment, enjoying and sharing the experience of singing creating unusual sonorities together.

Singing Medieval Music is a profoundly gratifying experience, new sonorities with lively and meditative rhythms.

We had some wonderful moments during our workshops in 2018, out of these experiences we have taken some new ideas for 2019. We thank all of you who have taken the time to send us some feedback!

The performances were deeply appreciated by the locals who also sang and participated actively in the performance.

Sicily: an Island to be experienced

There are so many things Sicily has to offer, it is difficult to describe them in a text, it has to be experienced. From the wonderful places which tell us a new story of European history, breathtaking Greek sites and impressive buildings from the 11th and 12th Centuries of the Medieval Palermo we will explore on our day trip.

The food is tasty and varied, fruit and deserts are part of Sicilian culture. The wine has an ancient tradition and the generous and rich flavors accompany every meal.

Erice is a fascinating little medieval city on the top of a hill. It offers a unique view of the territory around Trapani. This year we will revive the "Festival de Musica Medievale e Rinascimentale di Erice" which still lives in the memory of the locals and of many early music experts. Your trip includes tikes and transport to the 3 main concerts. Our workshop will lead to a piazza performance on Saturday afternoon, which will mark the end of the festival.

Medieval Palermo has places of unparalleled interest and beauty as the Capella Palatina and the cathedral of Monreale.

Theresa Bothe

Is a singer specialized in early music and songs of various historical periods. She is also a composer and a songwriter. She is known for the passion with which she treats music projects towards social inclusion and education. Her choir projects are appreciated for being lively and meaningful.

The performances are appreciated by the locals

We will experience singing by the Sea in the morning and join our voices with Sicilians who also love singing, to create a harmonic and joyful group for the performances.
